

THURSDAY FLYER

From the Principal's Pen:

Dear St. Gerard Families:

Parent-teacher conferences are right around the corner. Attached to this newsletter you will find the sign up form for conferences which will be held the evenings of November 1st and 3rd. Communication and cooperation between the home and the school are key ingredients to your child's success. Whether exchanging information or identifying and solving common concerns, parent-teacher conferences can be valuable learning experiences.

Parent-teacher conferences build a cooperative working relationship with:

- your child's teacher,
- enable you and your child's teacher to exchange pertinent information about your child;
- when necessary, establish a plan of action for resolving concerns.

Before the conference:

1. Prepare your agenda. Talk with your child and decide on questions or concerns you wish to discuss with the teacher.
2. Consider relevant information you wish to convey to the teacher about your child. This information will help the teacher understand your child better.
3. Decide on an order of priority in case time becomes an issue.
4. If applicable, arrange for a baby-sitter so that both parents are able to attend the conference.

During the conference:

1. Take some notes. Write down the teacher's answers to your pertinent questions.
2. Record the plan of action which has been agreed upon.
3. Discuss roles and responsibilities for the teacher, your child, and yourself.

After the conference:

1. Discuss the key points of the conference with your child.
2. Start immediately on the plan of action which was agreed upon at the conference. The sooner the action plan is implemented, the sooner you should see positive results.
3. If you find that you are unable to continue with any part of your plan for whatever reason, contact the teacher to discuss possible alternatives.

We are looking forward to seeing as many families as possible on these evenings. If these evenings do not work for you, you can check with your child's teacher to see if there is another possible time slot that works best for both of you. The Scholastic Book Fair will also be opening during conferences so make sure to stop by the Parish Hall and start some early Christmas shopping. Books are great gift ideas!

Have a Blessed Weekend!
